In this volume Georg Strecker profiles the new testament with major treatments of Paul, Jesus, the Synoptics, John, and the General Letters. Strecker argues for a rich mosaic of theologies rather than one single new testament theology. He adopts a redaction-critical approach and thus highlights the background of and relationships among the new testament writings. Strecker's relentless pursuit of the distinctive views of each specific writing allows the complexity of the new testament to emerge.

The essays in On the Writing of New Testament Commentaries discuss historical, hermeneutical, methodological, literary, and theological questions that shape the writing of commentaries on the books of the new testament.
