while the house church movement is gaining immense popularity throughout many denominational and independent faith communities collectively standing as the largest denomination in the united states sacramental and liturgical congregations are taking only the most tentative steps toward this venue of worship consequently there exists a vacuum of guidelines or information to support this dynamic ministry model from a uniquely sacramental perspective in this book dr andraeas examines the scriptural foundations for liturgical worship the biblical theological and historical precedents for house churches and how a union between priestly liturgy and house church worship complement and support each other he concludes with a vigorous challenge for all sacramental and liturgical jurisdictions to engage their seminarians clergy and people in embracing this approach to church planting evangelism and community ministry while offering thoughtful and obtainable recommendations
