When Jesus was teaching his disciples how to pray, did they truly fully understand the benefits that would change their life? Was Jesus's prayer something new or the unveiling of the promises that God would give to man who would believe throughout Jesus's ministry? He would reveal truths that were hidden from man with his compassion. He healed, cast out devils, raised the dead, and provided for those that were in need, which spread the news of the Kingdom. The Lord's Prayer, unveiled by William Chandler, will encourage readers to take a more careful look at how they pray and why. What is the ability and authority we have in Jesus's name? Are angels our servants? What is the power in forgiveness? Why was the tabernacle in the wilderness under Moses so important for a man to have relationship and fellowship with God? How does this relate to us today? Author William Chandler presents his exploration through biblical events, research, and storyline accounts in an easy-to-read and research manner. He draws attention to the understanding that God's word will give us the answers in this life as a believer and help us observe the simplicity of Christ and not man's traditions or superstitions. Readers are encouraged to go past reason and logic to take God at his word. William Chandler currently resides in Tucson, Arizona, with his wife.
