the latest volume of culture and civilization gathers contemporary exponents of critical theory specifically those based in the frankfurt school of social thinking collectively this volume demonstrates the continuing intellectual viability of critical theory which challenges the limits of positivism and materialism we may question how the theoretical framework of marxism fails to coordinate with the conditions that defined labor forces as did max horkheimer and theodor adorno or deliberate on the conditions that justify the claims we make through public discourse as did jurgen habermas or like axel honneth we may reflect on recognition theory as a means of addressing social problems whatever our objective the focus of critical theory continues to be the consciousness of established positive interests that without debate may sustain injustices or conditions which the public may not have chosen to impose throughout the hardship of punitive dismissal and exile in the 1930s and 40s and the shock of the new left in the 1960s and 70s and finally the later linguistic and pragmatic turn the frankfurt school has sustained the idea that people escape disaffection and alienation when their knowledge of the social and political world is dialectically mediated through creative interaction this new volume in the culture and civilization series continues the tradition of critical thought the worldwide resurgence of authoritarianism has sparked renewed interest in the frankfurt school theory of the authoritarian personality not as a topic of academic debate but as an urgent political factor critical theory and the authoritarian personality brings theodor adorno s critique up to date in light of new forms of authoritarian politics recent kinds of authoritarian propaganda and current findings about authoritarian personalities drawing on the work of slavoj zizek and the psychoanalysis of jacques lacan this is the first sustained application of psychoanalytic theory to the problem of the authoritarian personality since the classical work of the frankfurt school it explores a pressing problem the resurgence of the radical right and proposes new solutions grounded in the idea of an affective approach to authoritarian politics as something based on transgressive fantasies and political anxieties throughout the book illustrates its theoretical claims with reference to new kinds of authoritarian literature which today forms an important part of right wing propaganda nursing theory postmodernism post structuralism and foucault critiques mainstream american nursing theory and its use of post structural theory comparing and contrasting how postmodern and post structural ideas have been used fruitfully in nursing research and theorizing elsewhere in the late 1980s references to post structuralism and michel foucault started to appear in nursing journals since then hundreds of nursing publications have cited postmodernism and key post structural ideas such as power knowledge discourse and de centring the human subject in nursing theory postmodernism post structuralism and foucault olga petrovskaya argues that the application of these ideas is markedly different in american nursing theory scholarship compared to nursing theoretical scholarship generated outside the canon of unique nursing theory analysing relevant literature from the late 1980s through 2010s she demonstrates this difference arguing that american nursing theory calcified into a matrix of dogmas built on logical positivism wary of borrowed theory and loyal to a unique nursing science post structural ideas that fit the matrix such as criticism of medicine are sanctioned whereas ideas sceptical of humanistic agendas including those that challenge american nursing theory are rendered meaningless in contrast other nurse scholars from britain australia canada and what the author calls the american enclave group engaged with postmodern and post structural perspectives to enrich their research and invite readers to rethink nursing practice the book showcases examples of their intelligent creative theorizing arguing that american nursing theory energized nursing theorizing petrovskaya calls for opening this matrix to theoretical and methodological creativity less rigid categories of scholarship and healthy self examination making the case that post structural ideas are vital for nurses ability to critically reflect on their discipline and profession this is a necessary read for all those interested in nursing theory philosophy and praxis chapter 1 of this book is available for free in pdf format as open access from the individual product page at routledge com it has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 4 0 license theories of justice struggle to balance vision and practicality as with habermas the more demanding the ideal of justice the less connected the theory is to political reality as with rawls the more politically realistic the theory the weaker its normative criteria rendering the theory unreliable brokering a resolution to the judgment paradox albena azmanova advances a critical consensus model of judgment which serves the normative ideals of a just society without resorting to ideal theory tracing the evolution of two major traditions in political philosophy critical this handbook brings together chapters exploring key issues important debates and points of tension in order to create a substantial review of the field of school organization sociology is experiencing what can only be described as hyperdifferentiation of theories there are now many approaches competing for attention in the intellectual arena from this perspective we should see a weeding out of theories to a small number but this is not likely to occur because each of the many theoretical perspectives has a resource base of adherents as a result theories in sociology do not compete head on with each other as much as they coexist this seminal reference work was brought together with an eye to capturing the diversity of theoretical activity in sociology specifically the forefront of theory contributors describe what they themselves are doing right now rather than what others have done in the past the goal of this volume is to allow prominent theorists working in a variety of traditions who wouldn't usually come together to review their work the chapters in this volume represent a mix of theoretical orientations and strategies but these theories are diverse and represent the prominent theoretical discussions in sociology today some areas included are section i theoretical methodologies and strategies section ii the cultural turn in sociological theorizing section iii theorizing interaction processes section iv theorizing from the systemic and macrolevel section v new directions in evolutionary theorizing section vi theorizing on power conflict and change sectionvii theorizing from assumptions of rationality this handbook will be of interest to those wanting a broad spectrum and overview of late 20th early 21st century sociological theory
