one man's quest to realise a boyhood dream and break a national record. Sean Dooley seems like a well-adjusted functioning member of society but beneath the respectable veneer he harbours a dark secret: he is a hard-core birdwatcher aka 'twitcher'. Sean takes a year off to try to break the Australian twitching record: he has to see more than 700 birds in twelve months travelling the length and breadth of Australia. He stops at nothing in search of this birdwatching 'holy grail', blowing his inheritance, his career prospects and any chance he has of finding a girlfriend. Part confessional, part travelogue, this is a true story about obsession: it's about seeking the meaning of life, trying to work out what 'normal' is and searching for the elusive grey falcon, the bird not the car. Sean's story of how he followed his childhood dream of becoming a national champion is both inspiring and ridiculous: could this be the most pathetic great achievement in Australian history?

Featuring the first extensive Hanna-Barbera discography ever published and over 140 photos and illustrations, whether it's Tom and Jerry, Scooby-Doo, The Jetsons, Yogi Bear, Top Cat, Huckleberry Hound or hundreds of others, the creations of the Hanna-Barbera studio continue to delight generations worldwide. The groundbreaking company employed thousands in the art and business of animation: some of them were vintage era veterans, others were up-and-coming talents, some of whom found blockbuster success at other studios. The power of the sounds that Hanna-Barbera crafted to accompany the compelling visuals was a key factor in its spectacular success. Legendary vocal performances and signature sound effects evoke countless visual images: catchy music cues and theme songs are recalled instantly. Hanna-Barbera: The Recorded History from Modern Stone Age to Meddling Kids Chronicles for the first time the story of this entertainment phenomenon from one century to the next and reveals unexplored aspects of its artistry. Hanna-Barbera's impact on the music industry is chief among these aspects: author Greg Ehrbar chronicles the partnership between Bill Hanna, Joe Barbera and their talented associates and, at the same time, parallels the impact of their artistry on the recording industry. Page after page abounds with exclusive interviews, surprising facts and previously unpublished anecdotes. Also featuring the first extensive H-B discography ever published, Hanna-Barbera: The Recorded History earns its place on the go-to shelf of every animation, music, television and film enthusiast.

Barry Forshaw celebrates with enthusiasm the British horror film and its fascination for macabre cinema. A definitive study of the genre, British Gothic Cinema discusses the flowering of the field with every key film discussed from its beginnings in the 1940s through to the 21st century.

Regional bird field guides are few and far between in South Australia and Chris Baxter's photographic guide to the birds of Kangaroo Island is the stand out in this genre. This comprehensive account covers all 267 bird species recorded on the island or offshore over the seas. It builds on the annotated list produced by the same author in 1989 and revised in 1995. The photographs provided by some of Australia's most highly regarded photographers beautifully illustrate the detailed descriptions of the birds, their habits, habitats, breeding status, abundance and distribution on the island. In addition, there are recommendations on where to look for each species, with cautions about not getting too close to endangered birds and their nests. Chris Baxter has called on a lifetime of bird watching on Kangaroo Island and observations from visitors and residents to present an attractive field guide that is a must for all birdwatchers from casual observers to serious ornithologists
