first a reflection on the key word in the title of the whole work telling it was occasioned by reflections on a verse of john s prologue which i translate thus no one has ever seen god the only son who is in the bosom of the father he has told us about him jn 1 18 i have italicized the words in which i differ from the translation of the rsv neb and jb he has made him known eventually my choice of translation here suggested the title of the whole book to tell is to mention one by one relate in detail make known or manifest disclose divulge reveal inform report to telling suggest all of the mystery of the revelation by which god told us of himself and jesus told us of the father it suggests too the mystery and the frustration of all subsequent telling about god as the message is passed on it suggests the limitations the eternal inadequacy of all divine human symbolizing god can tell us about himself only by some sort of human symbolizing and evidently we can pass on the word only by symbolizing which through it is taken up into the divine self manifestation is always human Jesus told about the father he did so gradually by the words with which he spelled out the message he did so by all of the human actions and the whole of the human life which he lived in both word and action and by the whole of his human reality he could reveal only bit by bit
