course syllabi in faculties of education problematizes one of the least researched phenomena in teacher education the design of course syllabi using critical and decolonial approaches this book looks at the struggles that scholars policy makers and educators from a diverse range of countries including australia canada india iran palestine qatar saudi arabia the usa and zambia face as they design course syllabi in higher education settings the chapter authors argue that course syllabi are political constructions representing intense sites of struggles over visions of teacher education and visions of society as such they are deeply immersed in what walter mignolo calls the geopolitics of knowledge authors also show how syllabi have become akin to contractual documents that define relations between instructors and students based on a set of empirically grounded studies that are compared and contrasted the chapters offer a clearer picture of how course syllabi function within distinct socio political economic and historical contexts of practice and teacher education originally published in 1985 this book looks at the way in which some businesses in high technology manufacturing industry have organised their structures and processes in order to manage product innovation effectively including detailed case studies of both british and american companies the book gives examples of both effective and less effective practices the author puts forward a general framework of good practice for the benefit of both practitioners and business studies students the fifth edition of the best selling teach by janice koch aims to help students answer the question is teaching the right career for me via a concise but wide ranging exploration of the american public education system teach asks readers to imagine themselves in the classroom and develop their own ideas of what it means to be a teacher real life classroom stories from teachers themselves help readers see themselves as teachers chapters feature the latest edtpa and intasc standards to structure learning as well as learning outcomes and journal prompts to give readers clear goals and ways to build their teaching skills this new edition features major emerging issues in education including developments in technology in the classroom with both positive and negative implications more on the stem steam and maker movements school choice and homeschooling sexual orientation and gender identity diversity equity and inclusion and the importance of personal wellness in teacher success throughout the text the author references and contextualizes the effects of the covid 19 pandemic where appropriate to reflect the ways students teachers and classrooms have been altered by this historic event combining historical and contemporary perspectives this text helps future teachers examine the ways in which society and culture shape schools and the ways in which schools shape society and culture this book examines the role of education in building a new palestinian state and especially on the role and function of the education system in the process of state formation since education frames a people s identity the nature of the education system affects how palestinians relate to their state through education the palestinian authority pa transforms the parameters of identity to serve the requirements of state building and the peace process international assistance to the pa affects all of these processes through the disbursement of political rent whose primary function is to bolster the pa and to keep the peace process going the new palestinian authority has assumed two seemingly contradictory functions state building and resistance and the dynamic tensions between the two raise key questions for political and policy analysis are these functions mutually exclusive or complementary in the context of the ongoing peace negotiations and state building can the palestinian leadership transform the palestinian national movement from a revolutionary organization to a pragmatic state apparatus are the plo and the pa interchangeable what type of power does the pa need to cultivate the support or to secure the compliance of the palestinian people for the state building project clearly the answers to these questions have a direct bearing on the education system will this system promote a resistance identity or a state building legitimizing identity
